1031 A Glasgow female spoke with an officer about a man she caught peeing behind the library Friday and she has found boxes of other items or trash in the gazebo behind the library.

1252 A case of harassment/threats was reported at St. Marie. No further action was required.

1337 A Glasgow male wanted to speak with an officer because his wife won't let him see his 7-week-old son. He said they do not have a parenting plan.

1400 A Glasgow female reported a truck that was parked behind the car wash earlier this morning. She described it as a water truck but that it looked like one of the beer trucks. She said she saw that at some point someone had picked up the water truck and left a regular-sized truck and a regular-sized pickup. Now the pickup was gone and the truck was back, but it was in front of the car wash. An officer was notified, who advised this was a civil parking issue.

1423 A Glasgow female reported hearing a loud pop and was then without power. She said she was inside on the couch, so she wasn't sure if there was any arcing or sparking. NorthWestern Energy was notified.

1443 A Nashua male reported an electrical pipe with wires sticking out of it was laying across the westbound lane on Hwy. 2 at about MM 553. He said it was not attached to anything and looked like it just fell out of a vehicle. He said a motorcycle just about hit it. He was behind the motorcycle and had vehicles behind him, so the debris was definitely creating a hazard. A deputy went all the way to Nashua and didn't see anything in the lanes. It appears someone may have picked it up.

1503 A Roosevelt County male asked that dispatch contact Long Run FD and have them send as many trucks as they could to a fire about 20 miles north of Wolf Point on Hwy. 250 near Lustre. The brush fire was actually in Roosevelt County, and they were requesting help from LRFD. The caller advised the head of the fire was still moving rapidly. It was 2 miles ahead of the unit on scene. One subject had already lost a barn. LRFD was notified.

1600 A Valley County caller reported four people hitchhiking about 5 miles east of Glasgow. He said there was a train nearby, so they may have come from there. The subjects were possibly students and had beards. One may possibly be a female. The caller didn't want to give his last name.

1640 A Glasgow female reported a huge hole in the alley behind the post office by their mailbox. She said the hole had about a 6-inch edge of concrete around it. The hole needed to be filled in. Dispatch notified the city office.

1950 A Valley County male broke down about 30-40 miles west of Wolf Point. He was out of the driving lane. The mapping showed that he was between MM 559 and 560, in a two-tone gold 2010 Buick Rendezvous. He wanted a tow to Wolf Point. Dispatch called the Wolf Point tow truck driver and patched him up with the caller.

2116 A St. Marie male reported that the Condo Assoc. entered his residence without his authorization. They removed a window and replaced it with cardboard. A deputy went there to drop off a statement and to take pictures.

Tuesday, Sept. 19, 2017

0739 A female called to report their bus had been in an accident near Hinsdale. She was trapped and the driver was not responding and there were four kids on board.

1115 A warrant was served and an arrest made in Glasgow.

1504 A Glasgow female wanted officers to respond to her residence for a parental interference. This was a civil complaint. No further action required.

1817 A Glasgow male reported a stray brown dog that was upsetting his dog. He believed that the dog lived at the xxxxx residence. An officer advised who the dog possibly belonged to. The officer tried to call that person, but was unable to reach him. He patrolled the area, but was unable to locate the dog.

2235 A Phillips County female said they had an $88 drive-off from Ezzie's Westside in Malta around 10 p.m. The suspect vehicle was an older white Chevy flatbed pickup. It was possibly a 70's to early 80's model. She didn't get the plate number, but the flatbed was piled high with stuff above the cab. It also had a fuel tank on the back. If located, they could either return to Malta and pay or pay at Ezzie's in Glasgow. An officer patrolled US 2 and sat in Hinsdale a while, but was unable to locate the vehicle.

Wednesday, Sept. 20, 2017

1037 BNSF police advised they had a report of a female on the right-of-way taking photos. The closest location they could give was a half a mile southeast of the Wiota Road train crossing. They didn't have a description of the female, but said she did have a yellow bug near the location. A deputy was notified, who located this vehicle at the gas pumps at Agland in Nashua. The female had been out taking pictures of the birds in the cattails below the tracks. When one of the track officers came by, she went and moved her car out of the way, and that might be why it looked suspicious.

1155 A fire had been reported near Glasgow. An officer reported who the people were and that the fire was in a pit that they were using for cooking.

1231 A Glasgow male reported an RV pulling a trailer headed south on Hwy. 24 N, that had crossed the center line once and the white line three times. He said the vehicle was jerking quite a bit. He was concerned it may be an impaired driver. As the caller and dispatch were talking, he said the RV pulled into the parking lot of Aces and 8's. A deputy was notified, and the deputy said the wind was gusting due north and they may not be able to feel it going north and south, but can verify it was gusting going east and west. The deputy spoke with the driver and reported the driver was just fine and was aware of the wind and the complaint. No enforcement was needed. The caller was willing to write a statement if needed.

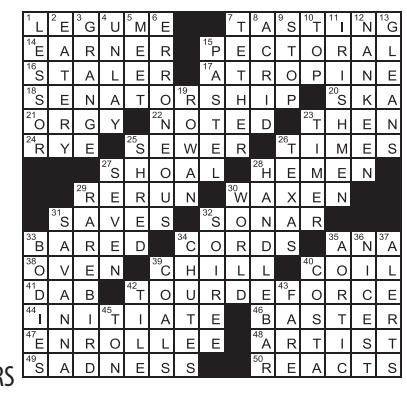
LAST WEEK'S ANSWERS



Out and About in St. Marie and Beyond.

BY FRANK AND LIN VARGO III
COURIER CORRESPONDENTS

ST. MARIE NEWS

Water woes lead to a war of words. The blame game has been directed at the water department of St. Marie for several days now. However, we feel that the president of the Water Board, Mr. Jerry Ketchum, did what he could with the equipment and manpower that was available, and when he had to call for outside help, they were on other job sites and could not get to St. Marie as quickly as people expected. But when they did arrive, Mr. Ketchum was out and about in St. Marie, supervising. He told us that he knows exactly what everyone is going through because he and his wife, DeAnn, were once without water for three weeks themselves.

Water was restored to many households on Ash Street after the drought that lasted for 17 days, off and on, for many residents. Although, as of this writing, there are some areas still affected with the loss of water. It was a difficult two weeks plus for some families that had children to attend to and also elderly people. Not fun, but it was an unexpected accident that caused the main break.

Phil Kantelis and Patricia Maestre went to the Cottonwood Inn in Glasgow and stayed there for several days with an unnecessary expense. Patricia was up from Florida to visit and was put in the middle of the water dilemma. Others were not so lucky and had to remain in St. Marie. It was not a great feeling when you went down to Glasgow and met with friends who had heard of the water outage. They just said that they were sorry that you had to go through this.

Great people like Kelly and Amber McVay finally did get some relief with a makeshift connection by attaching garden hoses to a fire hydrant and stringing in different directions. One hose went north and one went south, and they were connected to buildings on both sides of Ash Street. A barrier was erected blocking the street from through traffic from Cottonwood Ave. to Walnut, keeping the hoses from getting run over by vehicular traffic. Kelly and Amber were still smiling because they had water to do the chores and laundry, but most of all to take a shower in their own home. They had the kindness of friends who allowed them to use their home. Not so lucky on Pine and Locust Streets. There is a barrier made up of construction sawhorses that was to restrict traffic, but tire tracks from vehicles say different. The 1403 RC911 requested a deputy to assist their tribal officer in a property dispute at an Oswego location. RC911 stated further that one of the parties recently obtained a protection order against the other one.

1555 An Amtrak employee requested an officer to meet them at the depot at 4:29 p.m. They will be coming from the west. Another officer arrived and at 9 p.m., they entered the subject's house and found the complaint unfounded. They will check Holiday's security tapes.

2055 A Valley County female reported that a male hit a deer on US 2 by Boreson Rd. He was in a silver 2017 GMC Sierra. There were no injuries. While the caller was still on the phone, another call came in from a male reporting that a newer white GMC had hit a deer on US 2 by MM 529. The deer was laying in the westbound lane. The vehicle was out of the driving lane. The first caller reported that his airbags deployed. He doesn't know if his vehicle was drivable, but he wasn't injured. HHP was also notified. The officer also advised that the caller drove to a tun off, so it wasn't a traffic hazard. He also advised that there was a vehicle about one-half mile from this location with its headlights on. He will check to see that they're okay.

Saturday, Sept. 23, 2017

1050 A male caller advised of a domestic dispute at his neighbor's that has been going on for an hour. He advised he can hear music. No one is answering the door and the music is coming from the trailer in the back. A deputy and an officer went to the suspect's residence to look at the damages done from the shotgun.

Dispatch gave the phone information to an officer, who advised no one answered the door. He looked in the windows and the place was empty. At 2:09 p.m., dispatch got hold of this caller and the caller said she had called because there was a female who was passing out at Shopko. They originally asked her to call 911, then told her to hang up as they would just take care of it themselves. She advised the woman's husband came and got them. Dispatch told her that if it ever happened again, just to wait until dispatch answered and then tell them you don't need any services.

1414 A Glasgow female would like an officer to call her. There is a male in Lodgepole trying to get pictures of the caller's 16-year-old daughter on Facebook. Dispatch will have an officer call her back.
